

CODE OF CONDUCT

Version 4.2 · Effective 1 April 2026

ARTICLE 1 - PRINCIPLES

1.1 We act with integrity, treat people with respect, protect client trust and comply with the law everywhere we operate.

ARTICLE 2 - EXPECTED BEHAVIOUR

2.1 Be honest in timesheets, expense claims, reports and client communication.

2.2 Treat colleagues, clients and vendors with respect regardless of gender, caste, religion, race, age, disability, sexual orientation or nationality.

2.3 Protect company and client assets, including data, IP, equipment and funds.

2.4 Use company systems for business purposes; limited personal use is allowed.

ARTICLE 3 - CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

3.1 Declare any outside employment, directorships, investments above 1% in competitors/clients/vendors, and relatives working at clients or vendors.

3.2 Freelance or side work in the same domain requires written approval from the manager and HR.

3.3 Declarations are made in the HRMS at joining and renewed each April.

ARTICLE 4 - GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

4.1 You may accept gifts worth up to USD 50 (or local equivalent) per source per year.

4.2 Anything above that must be declared within 7 days, and gifts above USD 150 are returned.

4.3 Cash, vouchers and gifts during an active bid or procurement are never allowed.

ARTICLE 5 - ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

5.1 Zero tolerance. No facilitation payments. Government-official hospitality needs pre-approval from Legal.

ARTICLE 6 - SOCIAL MEDIA AND PUBLIC STATEMENTS

6.1 Only authorised spokespersons speak for Nimbus. Do not share client names, logos or work without written client consent.

ARTICLE 7 - INSIDER INFORMATION

7.1 Client material non-public information must not be traded on or shared.

ARTICLE 8 - REPORTING VIOLATIONS

8.1 Report to your manager, HR, or the ethics hotline (see the Whistleblower Policy). Retaliation is itself a violation.

ARTICLE 9 - CONSEQUENCES

9.1 Violations are handled under the Disciplinary Policy and may lead to termination and legal action.

ARTICLE 10 - PURPOSE AND SCOPE

10.1 Sets the minimum standard of behaviour for everyone who works for or with Nimbus. It applies to employees, interns, contractors, and anyone acting on behalf of the company.

ARTICLE 11 - DECISION TEST

11.1 Before acting, ask yourself:

11.2 Is it legal?

11.3 Is it consistent with our values and policies?

11.4 Would I be comfortable if it appeared in the news or in front of the client?

11.5 Would I be comfortable explaining it to my manager?

11.6 If any answer is "no" or "not sure", stop and ask.

ARTICLE 12 - EXAMPLES

12.1 Situation: Vendor sends a USD 30 festive sweets box; Acceptable?: Yes; Why: Under the limit; share with the team

12.2 Situation: Client offers a 5-star weekend trip during a renewal; Acceptable?: No; Why: Active commercial decision; decline and report

12.3 Situation: Freelancing on weekends building apps for a Nimbus client; Acceptable?: No; Why: Conflict of interest; not approved

12.4 Situation: Posting "Proud of our team's launch" without the client name; Acceptable?: Yes; Why: No confidential detail

12.5 Situation: Hiring your cousin into your own team; Acceptable?: No; Why: Relatives cannot sit in the same reporting line

ARTICLE 13 - RELATIONSHIPS AT WORK

13.1 Romantic relationships between people in the same reporting line must be declared to HR. One party is then moved to a different reporting line.

ARTICLE 14 - FAIR COMPETITION

14.1 Don't share pricing with competitors.

14.2 Don't misuse competitor information.

14.3 Gather competitive intelligence from public sources only.

ARTICLE 15 - USE OF COMPANY ASSETS

15.1 Laptops, software licences, cloud accounts and brand assets are for company business. Personal cloud storage for company files is prohibited.

ARTICLE 16 - ROLES

16.1 Employees: comply and speak up.

16.2 Managers: create a speak-up culture and escalate reports within 2 business days.

16.3 Ethics Committee: interprets this Code and oversees investigations.

ARTICLE 17 - ANNUAL CERTIFICATION

17.1 Each April, every employee certifies compliance and renews conflict-of-interest and gift declarations in the HRMS.

ARTICLE 18 - REVISION HISTORY

18.1 4.2 (2026): Added AI-use and relationships clauses.

18.2 4.0 (2024): Global version.
