

Data Privacy Policy (Employee & Client Personal Data)

Version 2.3 · Effective 1 April 2026 · Covers GDPR (EU), DPDP Act 2023 (India), PIPEDA (Canada), PDPA (Singapore), CCPA/CPRA (California)

Principles

Lawfulness, purpose limitation, data minimisation, accuracy, storage limitation, security, accountability.

HR data we process

Identity and KYC, contact details, bank details, compensation, tax, performance, training, leave and medical certificates (sick leave only), background verification.

Retention schedule

Record	Retention
Payroll & tax records	8 years after the financial year
Personnel file	7 years after exit
Recruitment data (unsuccessful candidates)	12 months, with consent
Medical certificates	3 years
CCTV footage	30 days

Rights of individuals

Access, correction, deletion (subject to legal retention), portability and objection. Requests go to privacy@nimbus.example and are answered within 30 days.

Cross-border transfer

Standard Contractual Clauses or equivalent safeguards. The HRMS is hosted in AWS ap-south-1, with a backup in eu-central-1.

Purpose and scope

Explains how Nimbus collects, uses, stores and protects personal data of employees, candidates, clients and vendors.

Lawful bases used

Purpose	Basis
Payroll, tax, statutory filings	Legal obligation
Employment administration	Contract
Background verification	Consent / legitimate interest
Security monitoring	Legitimate interest

Purpose	Basis
Wellness and optional surveys	Consent

Sensitive data

Health, biometric and financial data are restricted. Medical certificates are visible only to HR and the approving manager. Diagnoses are never shared further.

Vendors (processors)

Every processor signs a Data Processing Agreement:

- HRMS provider
- payroll bureau
- background-verification agency
- insurance broker

The list is available from the DPO on request.

Personal data breach

Report it through the Information Security incident process. The DPO assesses the risk and notifies the regulator (72 hours under GDPR; "without delay" under the DPDP Act) and the affected individuals where required.

Privacy by design

New HR or client systems require a Data Protection Impact Assessment when they process sensitive data at scale.

FAQs

Can my manager see my payslip? No. Only Payroll and HR can.

How do I get a copy of my HR data? Email privacy@nimbus.example. You will receive a response within 30 days.
